

Reardon sent off at Loakes Park

Wycombe Reserves 0, Slough Reserves 1

FORMER Wycombe player Terry Reardon was given his marching orders when he allegedly landed a blow on Jimmy Jacobs while playing for Slough Town Reserves at Loakes Park in a Suburban League North Division match on Tuesday.

The referee took the action when he saw Reardon send Jacobs to the ground in the 36th minute of the match. The game was held up for three minutes while Jacobs was 'brought round'.

Andy Hunt returned to the forward line following his ankle injury, and Gary Lester, recovering from a stomach complaint, also played. This enabled manager John Maskell to retreat back to the bench after playing last Saturday.

Despite the return of Hunt, Wycombe lacked any bite up front with Jack supplying some good crosses but no-one there to meet them.

The deadlock was broken in the 73rd minute when Gary Fowles deflected a corner past his own keeper to give Slough what proved to be the winning goal.

WYCOMBE: G. Lester, T. Lee, S. Toll, I. Randle, G. Fowles, I. Howard, P. West, J. Jacobs, A. Hunt, E. Jack, G. Stanmore.
Sub: K. Stansbridge, D. Daley (not used).
